

Old Testament Intro

Welcome to the Keys of the Bible study: two personal studies of the Old and New Testament for all current Parenting to Impress blog and The Helping Hand newsletter subscribers.

Imagine with me a locked box. Your curiosity begs to figure out what is inside.

Many believe the Bible is a locked book. You must be super smart or have a degree in Theology to understand the cryptic message. I used to feel this way too. But this is not true.

When we show up with an open heart, the Holy Spirit will give us the key to unlock what we may not understand. And, I am excited to say that reading through the Bible will change your life, because it has changed mine.

If you have never daily spent time with the Lord, I invite you to read my blog series on How to Have a Quiet Time. Here are some suggestions supplies I have found helpful for this journey:

- Prayer Journal, Be Intentional Planner, or Notebook

I used a top-bound spiral notebook to take notes of each chapter and my Prayer Journal to guide my prayer time.

- Favorite Pen

Choose a pen or pencil that you love to write with. It will make journaling more fun!

- Bible or Bible App

The free YouVersion or Blue Letter Bible apps make it easy to switch between versions and for reading commentaries.

- Commentary

I found the David Guzik and Matthew Henry commentaries to be incredibly helpful. I also used my study Bible for explanation on tough verses.

- Accountability Partner

Invite friends to join you. Each day send a text or email sharing something you learned. Or meet weekly for discussion.

There is great discussion on the chronological order of the Bible, as well as the most important chapters. I have chosen the chapters and the order based on my research and personal study of the Bible. But feel free to add or subtract chapters or arrange in an order that you feel is most accurate. Simplifying this study to “key” chapters in no way negates the rest of the Bible. The Bible is God’s Word and should be examined as a whole. I invite you to jump into the New Testament study when you finish this one.

Yes...it may be hard to get started. It will be even more difficult to stay consistent. But. Your. Life. Will. Change. It will be worth every moment. I promise.

Only by grace...

Old Testament

Week 1

- Monday: Genesis 1 - 2:3
In the beginning...
- Tuesday: Genesis 2:4 - 25
The Lord God said, "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper suitable for him."
- Wednesday: Genesis 2:15-17, 3:1-24
It is important to review what God said about the tree in the garden to compare what was repeated in chapter 3.
- Thursday: Genesis 4:1-16
The first murder.
- Friday: Genesis 6:5-22
Because of the "great wickedness of the human race," God made a plan.
- Saturday: Genesis 7
Noah's family entered the ark with the animals.
- Sunday: Genesis 8

Old Testament

Week 2

- Monday: Genesis 9:1-17
- Tuesday: Genesis 11:1-9
This is a short reading to give you time to understand the effects of pride. I found this article from Desiring God very helpful in understanding the significance of the Tower of Babel.
- Wednesday: Job 1
While in the middle of the Bible, many people believe that Job occurred after the flood and before Joseph. While there is uncertainty about the exact timing, after the Tower of Babel could be a possibility. Job is often considered a confusing book. I found Matthew Henry's concise commentary to be very helpful in getting the full picture.
- Thursday: Job 2
- Friday: Job 38
This is my new go-to chapter for when I begin to question God. I would encourage you to read this chapter a second time in The Message translation for further understanding.
- Saturday: Job 39
A continuation of God's sovereignty.
- Sunday: Job 40
Although we won't be reading it in this reading plan, Job 41 continues God's response.

Old Testament

Week 3

- Monday: Job 42
- Tuesday: Genesis 12
Today we return to Genesis. For the next few days we will see Abraham's faith grow and a covenant made between God and Abraham.
- Wednesday: Genesis 15
- Thursday: Genesis 18
Scholars believe that the three men in this chapter were heavenly beings in human bodies.
- Friday: Genesis 21:1-21
Today a portion of the covenant from Genesis 12 was fulfilled in Abraham's son Isaac. In v9, Hagar and Ishmael were mentioned. I encourage you to go back to Genesis 16:1-4 to understand the backstory.
- Saturday: Genesis 22:1-19
This chapter has always been a struggle for me as it seems out of God's character. In reading some commentary I learned two things.
 1. There is a difference between test and tempt. James 1:13 says that God does not tempt anyone, but Genesis 22:1 states that God tested Abraham. Testing is to reveal our heart toward God and lead us to maturity (James 1:2-4). Tempting is to draw us to sin (what Satan does).
 2. Trust-God was testing Abraham to see if he would trust God even when God's command didn't make sense.
- Sunday: Genesis 24
Finding a wife was handled a little differently in Genesis.

Old Testament

Week 4

- Monday: Genesis 27
From yesterday's reading, Isaac and Rebekah were married. Skipping a few chapters forward, they had twins named Esau and Jacob. Esau was the oldest and was loved by Isaac. Jacob was loved most by Rebekah.
- Tuesday: Genesis 28:10-22
Another promise was made.
- Wednesday: Genesis 37
Today's reading begins the journey of Joseph. It is many people's favorite Bible story because of its example of God's sovereignty. Jacob (or Israel) had 12 sons and Joseph (age 17) was the youngest and Jacob's favorite.
- Thursday: Genesis 39
Two times the Word says, "The LORD was with Joseph..."
- Friday: Genesis 40
Notice how Joseph served well, no matter where he was.
- Saturday: Genesis 41
What does Joseph say prior to interpreting the dream?
- Sunday: Genesis 42
Joseph had his brothers do various things to see if their character had changed.

Old Testament

Old Testament

Week 6

- Thursday: Exodus 6:28-30, 7:1-25
Why the 10 plagues? So the people "will know that I am the LORD."

I always thought Moses did all the acts of God with the rod. Notice that Aaron did several due to Moses doubting God.
- Saturday: Exodus 9
Each plague attacked one of the Egyptians' gods.
- Sunday: Exodus 10
Notice that #1-9 plagues only affect the Egyptians, not the Israelites.

Old Testament

Week 7

- Thursday: Exodus 14
While this story is very familiar to many, ask the Holy Spirit to allow you to read the chapter with new eyes.
- Friday: Exodus 19
As you make notes in your journal, use arrows to mark Moses moving up and down the mountain. You may find the last part of this chapter confusing, but the Matthew Henry's Commentary is helpful.
- Saturday: Exodus 20:1-21
Providing the Israelites with a new way to live, God spoke directly to the people through the 10 Commandments. If you are unsure how to implement the 10 Commandments into the lives of your children, I encourage you to view this video series available to order.
- Sunday: Exodus 32

- Wednesday: Numbers 14
Sin has consequences.
- Thursday: Psalm 90
A prayer by Moses on the brevity of life. For me, this was a summary of Ecclesiastes and the brevity of life. "And our work will stand if we quietly leave it in His hands. Quietly do it to Him, never mind about results, but look after motives. You cannot influence results, let God look after them; you can influence motives. Be sure that they are right, and if they are, the work will be eternal." MacLaren's Exposition Psalm 90, Part II

- Saturday: Deuteronomy 2
- Sunday: Deuteronomy 3

Old Testament

Notice that God commanded the Israelites to not add to or subtract, just keep His commandments. What have you added to God's commands (legalism)? What commands are you ignoring (abuse of grace)?
- Tuesday: Deuteronomy 5
This is a reminder of the 10 Commandments. I love how God says to not turn aside from right or left. I like to call this "keeping it between the ditches."
- Wednesday: Deuteronomy 6
Notice all that God provided for the Israelites in the Promised Land.
- Thursday: Deuteronomy 7
God doesn't mess around with sin. He expects His commands to be followed. And when they seem harsh, remember that His commands are for the protection of His people.

Follow every command...so that you may live.
